History

Dream Foundation's team has more than 11 years of experience working in the youth and education sector. Thanks to their former and current dedication, more than 1000 people have gone to study abroad from different countries.

Examples of our partner institutions

Dream Foundation is working with nearly 30 higher education institutions around the world – here are just some of them to bring out as examples.

- Aalborg University - a characteristic feature of AAU is the courage to follow new paths within research as well as education. AAU is famous for its unique problem-based model of teaching and practical studies.
- HEC Management School - University of Liege - the result of a successful synergy between the University of Liege and HEC - Haute Ecole de Commerce. Located in Liège, at the heart of Europe.
- Aarhus University - Institute of Business and Technology – part of Aarhus University which is among the TOP 100 universities in the world. AU-IBT has the most satisfied business students in Denmark and the institution is one of Denmark's most innovative public organisations.
- Aberystwyth University - teaching and learning at Aberystwyth University is amongst the best in the UK, according to a Times Higher Education's Student Experience Survey. The University also has one of the highest student satisfaction rates in the UK and an excellent studying environment.
- TEKO Design and Business School - is Scandinavia's largest design and business academy within the fashion and lifestyle industry.
- Wageningen University - the leading European university in the Life Sciences. For the fourth year in a row, Wageningen University has topped the list of 14 Dutch universities in the Guide to Choosing Higher Education.
